EAPR Pathology Section meeting 2010

Potato Pests and Diseases: Old Enemies, New Threats

13th-16th September 2010

Teagasc Crops Research Centre
Oak Park, Carlow, Ireland

The 2010 European Association for Potato Research Pathology Section meeting will be held in Carlow, Ireland in September 2010. The meeting, jointly hosted by Teagasc and the Agri-Food and Biosciences Institute (Belfast), will be located at the Seven Oaks Hotel located close to Carlow Town centre.

This three day meeting will deal with all aspects of potato pathology with a special emphasis on new threats to potato posed by changes in the behaviour of existing pests and pathogens as well by new species. The meeting will also include an excursion to the Teagasc Crops Research Centre on the outskirts of Carlow town, home of the Teagasc potato breeding programme, followed by tour of the newly established VISUAL Centre for Contemporary Art located close to the meeting venue.

Participants are invited to submit abstracts (see Guidelines for format) indicating preference for poster or paper presentation. Abstracts of those selected will be published in Potato Research.

Non-EAPR delegates who register for the meeting will be entitled to full EAPR membership in 2010. Student bursaries: the EAPR is providing a limited number of bursaries covering registration costs (reduced price accommodation is also available, see Travel & Venue). To apply, students should submit an abstract of their proposed paper (to be included in the student paper competition) with confirmation of their status from their supervisor.
