

Day 1: October 19th

| | |
|---|---|
| 08.00-08.45 | Arrival and registration |
| 08.55-09.00 | Welcome from Declan Troy on behalf of the organising committee |
| 09.00-09.10 | Welcome from Prof Frank O'Mara, Director of Teagasc |
| 09.10-09.25 | Ministerial Address from Minister Martin Heydon, Minister of State at the Department of Agriculture, Food and the Marine |
| 09.25-09.35 | Peer Ederer: Introduction to the Summit |
| Session 1: The role of meat in diet and health (Moderator: Diana Rodgers) | |
| 09.40-10.05 | The evolutionary role of meat and its implications for contemporary nutrition and health challenges Neil Mann |
| 10.10-10.35 | The role of meat in global nutrient supply Nick Smith |
| 10.35-10.45 | Diana Rodgers - First synthesis |
| 10.45-11.15 | Tea and coffee; networking |
| 11.20-11.45 | How much red meat is good for us? Alice Stanton |
| 11.50-12.15 | Evidence-based nutrition: decision-making for individuals and populations Bradley Johnston |
| 12.15-12.25 | Diana Rodgers - Synthesis of session |
| 12.25-13.25 | Session workshop organized by Peer Ederer (in person attendees only) |
| 13.25-14.45 | Lunch |
| Session 2: The role of meat in a sustainable environment (Moderator: Peter Ballerstedt) | |
| 14.55-15.20 | Ecological aspects of livestock agriculture Pablo Manzano |
| 15.25-15.50 | Ruminants - contribution to a sustainable grassland environment, it is not as it seems Jason Rowntree |
| 15.55-16.20 | The role of grasslands and nutrient circularity in animal agriculture Wilhelm Windisch |
| 16.20-16.40 | Tea and coffee; networking |
| 16.45-17.10 | Making smallholder farmers ecologically and economically viable- what modern technology and local ingenuity can achieve Max Makuvise |
| 17.15-17.30 | Low-Carbon Agriculture in Brazil: Technologies and Sustainability Celso Moretti |
| 17.30-17.40 | Peter Ballerstedt - Synthesis of session |
| 17.40-18.30 | Session workshop organized by Peer Ederer (in person attendees only) |
| 18.30-18.45 | Summary of the Day |
| 18.45-20.45 | Networking event |

Day 2: October 20th

| | |
|--|---|
| 07.45-08.15 | Arrival |
| 08.30-08.40 | Peer Ederer: Introduction to the day |
| Session 3: The role of meat in society, economics and culture (Moderator: Theo de Jager) | |
| 08.45-09.10 | Sustainable livestock opportunities and new food system realities Shirley Tarawali |
| 09.15-09.40 | The economic value of meat production and society Peer Ederer |
| 09.45-10.10 | Ethical considerations of meat consumption Candace Croney |
| 10.10-10.40 | Tea and coffee; networking |
| 10.45-11.10 | Precision fermentation and cell based meat; viable alternatives? Paul Wood |
| 11.10-11.20 | Theo de Jager - Synthesis of session |
| 11.20-12.20 | Session workshop organized by Peer Ederer (in person attendees only) |
| 12.20-13.30 | Lunch |
| Session 4: Conclusion and Next Steps | |
| 13.30-14.00 | The restriction of meat through policy: the past, the present and the future Frédéric Leroy |
| 14.00-14.30 | Narratives - how they work and how to use them Peer Ederer |
| 14.30-15.30 | Session workshop on next steps organized by Peer Ederer/Frederic Leroy/Collette Kaster (in person attendees only) |
| 15.30-15.45 | On the future importance of scientific evidence in the meat and livestock debate Mairead McGuinness, European Commissioner |
| 15.45-16.00 | Synthesis and Final Words from the Organizing Committee - Declan Troy, Rod Polkinghorne, Collette Kaster and Mohammed Koohmaraie |
| 16.00 | Departure |