October 2014

A Joint
Farm Health and Safety Initiative

Teagasc and the Health and Safety Authority present:

Farm Safety Half-Day Training Courses Sign up today

Farm Safety Code of Practice training courses will take place at a centre near you from October 2014 to March 2015.

It is a legal requirement to complete and update the Farm Safety Code of Practice or to prepare a safety statement:

- Courses are practical and motivating.

- 98% of farmers are satisfied with the training.
- The cost of the course is €30.
- All farmers should avail of this farm safety course.
- Open to Teagasc clients and non-clients.

Contact your local Teagasc office for further information (see overleaf).

Your health is your wealth

As a farmer your health and safety is your most vital asset. By attending a half-day course you will get up to date with the legal requirement to complete a risk assessment and with the practical approach required to manage health and safety on your farm. If you have not completed the risk assessment already, or updated it recently, contact Teagasc in your county to register your interest in attending a course.

Farm Safety Code of Practice online

The Farm Safety Code of Practice can be completed online using the web address: www.farmsafely.com.

Please note that an independent server is used to operate this website and no other party has access to your document.
